ART EXHIBITION IN BANBURY.

THE COMMITTEE OF THE BANBURY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL OF ART

HAVE PLEASURE IN ANNOUNCING THAT THE

EXHIBITION OF THE CIRCULATING COLLECTION OF WORKS OF ART,

FROM THE NATIONAL MUSEUM AT SOUTH KENSINGTON AND FROM THE COLLECTIONS
OF HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, WILL BE OPENED AT

THE CORN HILL EXCHANGE, IN BANBURY,

On MONDAY, THE 6th DAY OF MAY, 1861.

The Collection comprises Valuable Specimens of Ancient and Modern Art, in Painting, Sculpture, Carving, Metal Work, Jewellery, Porcelain, and Pottery, Glass and Enamels, Mosaics, Textile Fabrics, etc., etc.

The Exhibition will be further enriched by selections from many private collections in the neighbourhood, and by contributions from eminent manufacturers.

It will be open for three weeks only.

It will be inaugurated by a Conversazione, at which C. B. Worsnop, Esquire, the Curator of the Circulating Collection will deliver an Explanatory Address.

Independently of the attractive character of the Exhibition, the Committee consider that its primary object, namely, the development of a taste for art among the manufacturing and industrial classes, is deserving of cordial public co-operation.

Possessors of Works of Art, or of Curiosities, willing to entrust them to the Committee are requested to communicate with the Secretary.
